OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THIS is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of breaking down, and one that will make the most of both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufacturers to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES,
and have the advantage of a reversible foot motion,

which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done while the machine is in motion; the saving of time in supplying the length of fabric is obtained by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Send a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A Visit to Sigel's Corps.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30, 1862.

If one would obtain a vivid conception of the desolation which war brings upon a land, let him cross the Potomac at Washington and ride out in the direction of Manassas. A ride just returned from a visit to Sigel's corps, now at Fairfax Court House. The whole country between that point and Washington is a scene of desolation. There has been the point of contact between great armies. Here they have wrestled and pushed each other this way and that as fickle fortune and feeble generalship has changed to give one or the other the advantage. Two years ago all was peace and established prosperity. Comfortable farm-houses sheltered happy inmates. Along the roads were smiling fields showing the husbandman's care, and gardens and orchards dotted the wayside.

The little hamlets nestled about the crossroads, in the valleys, were the scenes of quiet industry or rural gossip. Now the houses are tenanted in most instances.

There is scarcely a vestige of a fence to be seen anywhere. Many of the orchard trees have been cut down; others have their bark gnawed off by famished horses. The fields know no tillage but the pressure of the soldiers' feet or the hoof of the cavalry horse.

Batteries from every commanding

eminence. The roads are crowded with army wagons, drawn by mules with negro drivers. Dead horses and mules that have succumbed to overwork and starvation purity by the wayside and load the air with stench. The whole country swarms with the blue-coated soldiers of the Union. One hardly comes out of sight of an encampment of federal soldiers all the way to Fairfax Court House, which is seventeen miles from Washington. At intervals, the progress of the traveler is arrested by guards, and passes have to be displayed before he can proceed. Such is the state of things which old Virginia has brought upon this section of her domain as the result of her wicked and wanton treason.

The roads are now very good, although badly cut up by the baggage trains that continually move over them. They will be much worse probably before they are better, and everybody is impatient to see the army

pressing forward.
At Fairfax Court House, which is a village about the size of San Francisco, in the middle of a pleasant open country, quietly undulating, and not unlike some parts of southern Wisconsin in appearance, we found Gen. Schurz very comfortably established, his headquarters being in a vacant house, with a fine yard filled with trees in front. A half dozen camp stools and a

What is the Democratic Program?

Since the success of the democratic party in several of the state elections, consequent upon the absence of the volunteers in the army, it is natural to enquire what they would do if they had the power.

A study of the speeches of Horatio Seymour, their leader and ablest man, leads to the conclusion that the democratic party is opposed to the war for the integrity of the Union. Rather than use force, they would compromise away the last vestige of free principles in our constitution. Failing in their attempts to induce the rebels to lay down their arms by offers of compromise, they would yield to the demand for the separation of the south and acknowledge the independence of Jeff. Davis' confederacy. It is a fundamental idea with Mr. Seymour and his party that slavery must not be abolished. He declares plainly that if it becomes necessary to emancipate the slaves in order to compel the south to submit, that it would be wrong, and that we would have no right to do it; that the south ought not to submit to it. It is plain from all the speeches and arguments of the leaders of the democratic party that they mean to save slavery, whether the Union is saved or not. This is the first plank in their platform.

The next position is that the war is illegal and unnecessary. From this it is easy to take the next step, the repudiation of the war debt. This has already been cautiously broached in this state in regard to our state war bonds, and it has been more than hinted at in the canvass in New York in regard to the national war debt. Repudiation is number two of the programme.

The third position to be taken by the Seymour and Wood democracy, falling in compromise, which is out of the question with the leaders of the rebellion, will be to stop the war and divide the Union. This done they will raise the question of reconstruction, endeavoring to induce the states, one after the other, to join the southern confederacy and adopt Jeff. Davis' constitution.

Once the Union divided they have great hopes of inducing the northern states to unite with the south, and the question is even now asked, would you rather remain in the Union with New England or join the south and keep the Mississippi valley united?

This, we believe, is a part of the programme of the traitors who lead the democratic party. It means the destruction of the old Union by the revolution, and a reconstruction of a new empire based upon slavery and repudiation.

Congressional Elections.

According to present appearances the democratic elect eighteen members of congress in New York, and the republicans, thirteen; Illinois six republicans and seven democrats; Michigan six republicans; Wisconsin four republicans and two democrats; Minnesota two republicans; Kansas one republican; Missouri three republicans; New Jersey four democrats and one republican; Massachusetts nine republicans and one democrat. Total, thirty-five democrats and forty-five republicans. To this add the elections heretofore held, and the result is eighty-four republicans and seventy-five democrats, with the remainder of Missouri to hear from. New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Maryland, Virginia and Kentucky have not yet held their elections. The final result, therefore, remains in doubt.

The Legislature.

The Madison Journal, of Friday, says: In our own state, both branches of the legislature will be republican—the senate, about 18 to 16, and the assembly, some 65 to 45. We think this may be relied upon. We still believe our congressional delegation will stand four republicans and two democrats.

VOTE OF WISCONSIN SOLDIERS NEAR FORT MONROE.—A special dispatch to the Chicago Times from Fortress Monroe gives the vote and majorities in the 2d Wisconsin battery, stationed at Hampton. The following returns have been collected: for congress, 1st district, Brown 30; 2d district, Guppy 3; 3d district, Simpson 4; 4th district, Eldridge 30, Bragg 10.

The 19th Wisconsin also voted. It is stationed at Norfolk, and there are returns from a few companies. For congress, 1st district, Potter 18, Brown 38; 2d district, Sloan 10, Guppy 4, 4th district, Bragg 12, Eldridge 1; 5th district, Brown 9, Wheeler 4; 6th district, Stoddard 9, Hanchett 16.

DANE COUNTY.—The majority for Guppy in Dane county is 414.

THE DRAFT IN MILWAUKEE.—The draft will take place in Milwaukee on Monday next. The number to be drafted is 727.

VOTE OF THE 25TH REGIMENT.—The 25th regiment, at Camp Washburn, gave Potter 278 majority. The regiment is from Waukegan and Walworth.

CORINTH, Nov. 3, 1862.
ERRORS GAZETTE:—Even though it is election time, and returns are more interesting than war correspondence, I will venture to send you a part of a column from the battery. We have been in Corinth three weeks. When we came, our horses were worn out by hard marching and poor feed, and a long rest was given us, so that we could be ready to do our share of the marching when the time came. Yesterday morning the time arrived, and we started, leaving Corinth at nine o'clock, and going on our old route towards the Hatchie river. The advance of our army left here at daylight yesterday morning, and from that time till sundown there was one continuous line of troops going out of town. From this you can form some idea of the number of men we can bring against Price. Although several divisions have left, there are still enough left to hold the town. We got along very well where the road was level, but a hill was a serious obstacle to the "frames" which were harnessed in front of our pieces and caissons, and in several instances the muscular power of the cannoneers was called into use to push said frames up a rise of ground. The 6th Wisconsin battery was directly in front of us, and the contrast between that and the 12th was such as to cause remark from the infantry. The horses of the 6th were fat and healthy, and drew their loads with apparent ease, while ours were poor, sickly, halfstarved looking specimens of what they once were. The men of the 6th were comfortably seated on the pieces and caissons, evidently enjoying the ride; and when they got into a fight will be fresh and well prepared to do the heavy work of the occasion. Not so with us; we trudge along all day through several inches of dust, beneath the burning rays of a southern sun, with our blankets and overcoats strapped on our backs, and inwardly cursing the luck that brought us into a "walking battery." But we must bear it the best we can and hope for better times. We continued on our weary way, progressing slowly, over the rough roads, and retarding the advance of the whole army in the rear of us, till, when about six miles from Corinth, Gen. Hamilton and the chief of artillery rode along, and caught one of our horses in the net of giving out. They stopped and looked at our horses, asked a few questions, and passed on. A mile further on we stopped for water, and while there an order came back for us to return to Corinth—a condemned battery, unfit for service in the present state of its horse-flesh. This morning we made our way back, and entered our old camp.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From North Carolina.

NEWBURN, N. C., Oct. 28, 1862.
EDITORS GAZETTE:—I have been silent a long time, partly because the monotony of camp life at Readville furnished but little that would interest your readers, and partly because my duties as post master at Camp Meigs allowed me but little leisure. By choice I am now back again in the ranks, carrying my knapsack and musket.

Last Wednesday the 44th, and five companies of the 3d, left Boston on the steamer or Merrimack, for Newbern, N. C. We had a remarkably pleasant passage, reaching Morehead City about ten o'clock Sunday forenoon.

North Carolina gave us a stormy reception. It commenced to storm soon after we filed off the transport, and rained—or rather poured all the remainder of the day and night. We rode from Morehead City to Newbern, thirty five miles, in open cars. Our first night in Newbern was spent in a large machine shop. The salt cod fish and hard crackers dealt out by "Uncle Sam" were used by the boys for missiles to throw at each other's heads. This performance, taken in connection with a brick floor, wet clothes and a wet blanket, made the idea of sleep preposterous.

For the novelty of the thing, my chum and I went to a negro cabin to get breakfast. We called for hoe cake and sweet potatoes. I think it is safe to say I never enjoyed a breakfast more.

While it was cooking I talked with the negroes, a slave when the war began, but as she said, "thank God, a slave no more." She belongs to that class known as "intelligent contrabands." I asked her in regard to the white Unionists of Newbern. She said, "there are none; they all talk Union; but God knows they are at heart seceders. Most in the rebel army, fighting like a tiger."

During a day's stroll about the city I did not meet aside from the soldiers, more than twenty white men, and not over half a dozen white women. On our way from Morehead City to Newbern the negroes were everywhere jubilant at our arrival.

Garibaldi in a Critical Condition.

The health of Garibaldi is represented by the last accounts from Europe, as alarming. It was even rumored in Paris that he was dead. A Turin telegram, however, of the 22d, says that he had been removed to Spezzia, and bore the removal well. The state of his health is improved, but the papers still express much apprehension.

THE GREAT TRAITOR DETECTED.—The traitor discovered in the war department is said to be James M. Wright, a confidential clerk in the Adjutant General's office. He lives in Price George's county, Maryland. He is made acquainted with all the orders to the army before they are promulgated, and knows the most valuable secrets of the government, which he communicates to his rebel cronies. The war department has been repeatedly informed of his treason, but refused to credit it. Will it have the nerve to hang him now?

WILLIAM TELL SALOON.—Next door west of the Big Mill, will give a free lunch on Monday, Nov. 10th, at 10 o'clock A. M. CHARLES BETTLER.

Go-ferocious abolition Rock county gives dear brother 2,100 majority. It gave Lincoln 3,282.—Madison Patriot.

A fair show at the soldiers' vote will give "dear brother" as big a majority as Lincoln's. Put that in your pipe and smoke it.

They swung their hats and handkerchiefs, where they had any, and where they had none they threw up their hands, grined, and kicked up their heels to manifest their satisfaction, while many of the whites simply looked on in sullen silence. The country from Morehead City to Newbern is the most forsaken looking place I ever saw. It is a wilderness of girdled pitch pines. The only sign of civilization is an occasional "plantation," consisting of a small field of weeds in which appears now and then a corn stalk, a patch of sweet potatoes, and a small garden spot. A dingy looking dwelling, out of which peeps half a dozen gaping, dirty looking "white folks," and a negro cabin in the rear complete the picture. The question arises, is this the "sunny south"? I call it the land of tar and turpentine, white sand and darkies.

Last Night's Report.

Special to Chicago Evening Journal.

The expedition to Bledson Landing from Helena, under Col. McCutcheon, has returned without finding the enemy in force, they having scattered on the approach of our troops. Six prisoners were taken, two of whom were Confederate uniforms. The surrounding neighborhood was well scouted, and a number of shot guns captured. The gunboat Bragg has just returned from a forty mile cruise down the river, from Helena, but saw nothing of the rebels. Last Friday a detachment of the 46th Indiana on picket duty were attacked by rebel cavalry. The rebels were repulsed with severe loss—number not stated. Federal loss one killed, one severely wounded.

Hindman's outlaws having committed sundry depredations upon Union citizens in the vicinity of Helena, the federals have retaliated in a similar way on secession sympathizers. Several farms have been destroyed. Gen. Pemberton came up to Hernando on the 3d, from Jackson, Miss. He has taken measures to cut off completely all communication with Memphis.

People in the vicinity of Memphis are said to complain bitterly of this restriction. The Memphis Bulletin says it has definite information that the rebels are still concentrating at Holly Springs, and that nearly all of Holmes' force has been crossed over from Arkansas. Bragg's army is reported to be marching on Nashville.

On the 4th there was a large Confederate force between Collierville and seven miles of Memphis, and were scattered pretty thick all along the road toward Louisville. They burned all the cotton on the road they could find.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7. Special to Chicago Tribune.—The official returns elect Lovejoy by something over 300 majority.

St. Louis, Nov. 7. Blair's majority in the 1st congressional district, leaving out the soldiers' vote, is 557. Returns from the army will probably increase it to 1000.

Information from the 6th district represents the vote between Gen. Thos. L. Price and McCullough close, with the chance in favor of the latter.

General Ben. Loan, Union emancipationist, is undoubtedly elected in the 7th district.

Wm. A. Hall is elected in the 8th district by a 400 majority.

J. S. Rollins is elected from the 9th district by a small majority.

Returns from the state are yet meagre, but it is safe to assume that a majority of the members of the legislature elected are for emancipation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. Special to Chicago Tribune.—Residents at North Mountain, near Winchester, report that only 6,000 rebels remain at the place, leaving the remainder to be sent away two or three weeks since, and before McClellan started. The march began, they say, just after a grand review by Jeff. Davis. Destination Gordonsville.

Several inches of snow fell to-day. It is cold for troops in the mountains.

In all the hospitals of the United States there are now nearly 55,000 sick and wounded soldiers. Nearly 12,000 are in the west, over 17,000 in the capital, the rest on the Atlantic and Gulf seaboard—5,000 being at New Orleans.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5. The following is the vote of the soldiers: 3d Missouri volunteers—Blair, conservative; 62; Knox, radical emancipation, 255; Blow, radical, 26; Nelson, conservative, 4. 12th Missouri—Blair, 9; Knox, 238; Blow, 53; Nelson, 4.

17th Missouri—Blair, 9; Knox, 243; Blow, 62; Nelson, 0.

The 4th and 5th Missouri cavalry give a majority for Knox. Missouri batteries also give a majority for Knox.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7. The agent of the associated press inquired at the state department to-day about current rumors. Mr. Seward promptly replied that the alleged consultations between himself and Buchanan were imaginary. The reported propositions of Meriout, and alleged extraordinary meetings of the cabinet are fabulous.

General Martindale has been restored to duty.

St. Louis, Nov. 7. Special to Chicago Tribune.—The emancipationist in the interior has elected James M. Wright, a confidential clerk in the Adjutant General's office. He lives in Price George's county, Maryland. He is made acquainted with all the orders to the army before they are promulgated, and knows the most valuable secrets of the government, which he communicates to his rebel cronies. The war department has been repeatedly informed of his treason, but refused to credit it. Will it have the nerve to hang him now?

HEADQUARTERS, RECTORVILLE, Nov. 7. A heavy snow storm set in this morning about 9 o'clock, with every indication of continuing. The weather is cold. There is nothing new about military matters, except that the army is in motion. General Sumner and staff arrived here last night. Nothing but a construction train has yet arrived on the Manassas Gap railroad, although one is hourly looked for.

THE HOPKINSVILLE EXPEDITION.

From the following telegram from Cairo 7th, it is pretty certain that the 13th Wisconsin has at last been gratified with a fight, as they were with Col. Ransom:

A dispatch to-day from Col. Lowe at Paducah to Gen. Tuttle, says there is no doubt that Gen. Ransom had fought yesterday afternoon. Cannonading was heard about 3 p. m. between Hopkinsville and Lafayette. The following was received at headquarters from Fort Henry, at 9 o'clock last night: "Our cavalry from Gen. Ransom's command were pursuing Woodward."

It is reported that they had an engagement with 1,500 rebels. Our troops were victorious. It is also reported that the rebels above Fort Henry have been reinforced, and meditate an attack on that place."

THE FIRST DISTRICT.—The Milwaukee Sentinel says:

More accurate returns of the vote in this district are as follows:

Milwaukee	4,395
Waukegan	610
Walworth	1,793
Kenosha	237
Racine	453
Total	6,495

Majority for Brown, 2,907.

From this majority must be deducted 62 majority for Potter in the Thirty-Third regiment, and 278 in the Twenty-Eighth, making 344, and leaving 2,563 majority for Brown to go among the absent soldiers. There is no probability of his defeat.

WEST POINTERS IN THE TWO ARMIES.—From a list before us of the West Point graduates, who are officers in the armies of the United States and Confederate States, it appears that there are in the United States army major-generals 17, brigadier-generals 24, in the Confederate States army, general 6, (besides A. S. Johnston, killed at Shiloh), major-generals 18, brigadier-generals 41. From this list, which ends with 18
